Guest Speaker: Dr. Ilene Segal, DVM: Preparing for emergencies for your pets.

The MRC is still looking for volunteers. Please attend if you are interested in joining the Medical Reserve Corps (MRC). The MRC is made up of volunteers who assist in preparing for and responding to public health emergencies.

We are seeking the following volunteers:

1. Medical, Public, and Mental Health Professionals: doctors, physician's assistants, nurses, Paramedics, EMT's, pharmacists, medical technicians, counselors, social workers, psychologists, veterinarians, epidemiologists, etc.
2. Volunteer Coordinators: People who are interested in organizing meetings and developing and maintaining the Medical/Emergency Reserve volunteers.
3. Clerical Support: greeters, registrars, general administrative help
4. Security: traffic flow, parking, etc.
5. Transportation: to help people get to our dispensing sites.
6. Child Care: for our other volunteers

Benefits of volunteering with the Norfolk Medical Reserve Corps:

1. Be trained to provide medical, public and mental health support during an emergency
2. Network with professionals as part of a specialized team
3. Participate in initiatives that enhance public health such as vaccination
4. Obtain free training and continuing education credits
